

The Arne Ryde Foundation
in cooperation with the Department of Economics, Lund University, on behalf of the Nordic Econometric Network, announces

The 28th Arne Ryde Symposium

5th Nordic Econometric Meeting

29-31 October 2009 in Lund, Sweden

Aim The aim of the conference is to advance econometric research in the Nordic countries. The conference is open to econometricians of all countries and will cover a broad range of topics in econometric theory and applied econometrics, including but not restricted to macroeconomics, financial economics, international economics, labor economics, and health economics.

Keynote speaker

Hashem Pesaran, Cambridge University, UK

“The Analysis of Non-stationary Panel Data”

Call for papers Researchers within the field are encouraged to submit their work. Papers should be sent as attached pdf-files by email to the local organizers at the address below by 1 June 2009.

Applicants will be notified of acceptance no later than 1 July 2009.

Those interested in taking part without presenting a paper should apply to the local organizers before 1 September 2009.

Format Apart from the keynote lectures, the conference will be dedicated to the presentation and discussion of invited and contributed papers.

Accommodation and travel There is no conference fee. Participants are expected to pay for accommodation and travel costs. Lunches, coffee, and the symposium dinner in the evening 30 October will be hosted by the Arne Ryde Foundation. A limited fund for travel and accommodation grants is available to participants who lack other funding. Participants who wish to apply for funds should inform the local organizers when submitting papers or applications for participation. For further information about travel and accommodation, please visit the website of the conference.
